

TAFT'S VICTORY IS CLEAN CUT; NO QUESTION

May Even Invade Bryan's Camp And Carry Missouri---Has New York, Ohio, Indiana West Virginia, Wisconsin, And Even Idaho Safely Now.

HIS TOTAL MAY BE 316 BY NIGHT

Has 298 Votes In Electoral College. And May Add Eighteen More--His Majorities Large In So-Called Doubtful States--Johnson Wins In Minnesota--Hughes In New York And Deneen In Illinois.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Washington, Nov. 4.--President Roosevelt today gave his interpretation of the victory of the republican party at the polls yesterday when he said: "This administration has made a steady effort and progress which should never be allowed to deviate into unwise radicalism on one hand nor into unwise conservatism on the other. "The nomination of Taft was a triumph over the reactionary conservatism and his election was a triumph over unwise and improper radicalism."

The Gossip
While Taft's vote on the force of the returns this morning showed that he had carried all the states credited to him as safe, including New York, Ohio and Indiana, he added enough to his total to be certain of the election. The early reports from last night's figures gave him 301 electoral votes. Later this was cut down to 298, owing to the fact that Maryland first thought to be for him had given Bryan a small majority.

Missouri May Come Back
Indications, however, this afternoon are that Missouri may be found in the republican ranks again as Taft leads by a small margin. New York state, both national and state tickets, and Illinois national and state tickets gave Taft routing majorities. Minnesota, while selecting Johnson, gave Taft the usual republican majority.

Ohio Safe
Ohio, while probably electing a democratic governor, will give Taft a routing majority. The same is true of Indiana. Iowa went strongly for Taft and the entire republican ticket. West Virginia also went republican, as did all the New England states, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

In the West
In the west Taft carried Oregon, Washington, California, Utah, North and South Dakota, Idaho, and Kansas. If Missouri goes for Taft he will have eighteen more votes, bringing his total up nicely.

N. E. Kendall, republican, in the sixth Iowa district was elected.

MINNESOTA TAFT BY 80,000

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 4.--Incomplete returns indicate Governor Johnson's re-election by a majority of 10,000 to 15,000. Taft's plurality is between 80,000 and 100,000.

JOHNSON NAMED

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 4.--It is conceded by all parties at 11 o'clock today that Governor Johnson has been re-elected governor.

MICHIGAN TAFT BY 150,000

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 4.--Michigan yesterday gave Taft a plurality of upwards of 120,000 and the total may reach as high as 150,000 this afternoon. The returns on the gubernatorial ticket are still incomplete and both republican and democratic committees are claiming election of their candidate.

WIFE OF NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Mrs. William H. Taft Who Will Be First Lady Of The Land For Four Years.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.--No woman ever called upon to fill the difficult and exacting position of mistress of the White House was better prepared and equipped for her task than is Mrs. Helen H. Taft, the wife of President-elect Taft. She is a woman of culture and refinement and of many accomplishments, possesses unusual tact, social finish and, above all, a large measure of sound common sense. For a number of years she has lived in Washington as one of the most distinguished women of the official circles and the training which she received during that time will, undoubtedly, prove of great value to her as mistress of the White House. Personally Mrs. Taft is quite as attractive as she is from an intellectual point of view. She is fair, slender and girlish looking and no one would suspect from her appearance that she has a son old enough to be in college. She is frank and vivacious, unpretentious, and yet possessed of marked dignity of bearing and the self-possession necessary to a woman in her exalted position. She is always cordial, a rare accomplishment among society women and possesses an excellent memory for persons and names, an invaluable gift for the wife of a political leader.

PRESIDENT AND MRS WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

The new mistress of the White House was Miss Helen Herron, daughter of the law partner of the late President Hayes, when she married William H. Taft in Cincinnati, in 1886. She was a bright and talented girl with a perfect passion for music. In addition to a good education she received an excellent training in music and through all her future life music has ever been her favorite recreation. She is not only an accomplished pianist, but possesses a thorough knowledge of the theory of music and an extensive acquaintance with the best works of musical literature. But, notwithstanding her great love of music and her ardent devotion to it, she has never allowed it to become an all-absorbing passion, or even a hindrance to the extent of interfering with her duties to her husband and her family.

Although, probably, better equipped for a high social position than most women holding important positions in American society, Mrs. Taft is by no means a typical "society woman." For that she is too intelligent, sensible and well balanced. Ever since her husband entered official life in Washington and even before that, when he was still holding a judgeship in Ohio, Mrs. Taft has made it her study and aim to fill to the best of her ability the position in society to which she was entitled by virtue of her husband's official rank. Her natural talent and the intellectual training of her childhood days made the task easier for her and her inherent tact helped her to avoid the pitfalls and dangers to which women in official society are exposed. Nowhere is the new mistress of the White House seen to greater advantage than in her home circle, the supreme test for the sterling qualities of any woman, no matter what her position in society. She is devoted to her husband and her children, takes interest in everything pertaining to her domestic establishment, and is considered a model homemaker. She does not consider it below her dignity to attend to her household duties and devotes great personal care to the proper conduct of her domestic establishment. No woman in Washington society ever knew better than Mrs. Taft to add a wholesome and refreshing domestic charm to her social entertainments. No matter how formal the function may be, Mrs. Taft as the hostess makes all her guests feel that they are received at her home, not in a hotel parlor or a public hall. She knows better than most women the secret of making her guests feel at ease, without vulgarizing the tone of her entertaining. Mrs. Taft is an accomplished musician and has great love for her art, but she never attributes the subject of music in conversation nor does she ever brood her guests with lullaby accounts of the petty tribulations to which every woman at the head of a large domestic establishment is more or less exposed. Of her family and her own affairs she speaks with well-bred discretion and sparingly, while she shows remarkable skill and tact in drawing out her visitors by manifesting sympathetic interest in their affairs. Her home, wherever she may be, is always filled with that intangible charm which springs from the intellectuality, refinement and exquisite artistic taste of the hostess. Mrs. Taft, like her daughter Helen, now studying at Bryn Mawr, is an Episcopalian, but she is broadminded enough not to allow religious differences of a serious nature to arise between her and her husband, who belongs to the Unitarian church, although he frequently attends services at the Episcopal church with his wife.

Debs and Chaffin
The Socialist candidate, Debs, received 87 votes in Janesville and Chaffin, the Prohibition standard bearer, received 75. Four wards in Beloit gave Debs 85 and Chaffin 15 votes.

Some Comparisons
Rock county four years ago cast 10,230 votes for the republican and democratic presidential candidates. This year it cast 11,070. It gave Roosevelt a plurality of 5,654 over Parker; and Taft a 4,652 plurality over Bryan.

$10.00 Crowns

When a dentist charges you $10.00 for crowning your teeth, it is charging more than I consider the work is worth.

I crown teeth in this office as good as teeth can be crowned anywhere and charge but $5.00, and I figure too, that I charge sufficient to justify the best work that can be given.

I will not slight the work at any time to make cheap prices.

Come in and let me examine your teeth.

I'll tell you what the cost will be, and you decide whether or not you care to have the work done later.

TAFT CARRIED STATE BY BIG VOTE OF 82,000

DAVIDSON ALSO ELECTED BY APPROXIMATELY SAME VOTE.

GENERAL RESUME OF STATE

Local Conditions in Milwaukee Cause Governor to Lose Somewhat—Twice Defeated Ekers—Murphy Defeated for Congress in Third.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 4.—From the latest returns received up to one o'clock this afternoon it was estimated that Taft's plurality in the state will reach 82,000.

Milwaukee, Nov. 4, 12 m.—While returns from Wisconsin are far from complete the indications are that Taft has carried the state by a plurality of 75,000. Davidson, republican, and the state ticket were re-elected by a plurality nearly equal to that.

Early Report

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 4.—Chairman Edmund's prediction that Wisconsin would be carried by Taft by a hundred thousand appears to be true from the rough estimates received early this morning. Governor Davidson has also been elected by a majority which is approximately 80,000 plurality, running behind the national ticket in several localities due to local conditions.

In the congressional contest the republicans gained one seat in congress, A. W. Kornp defeating present Congressman Murphy, who was elected two years ago after a hard fight on Congressman Hancock. Congressman Weiss in the sixth won out by a small margin, keeping one democrat in the Wisconsin delegation, but he had a bad score for his seat.

In the legislative contest the republicans will have fourteen state senators and thirteen hold-overs, the democrats elected one and had four hold-overs and the socialist democrats elected one. In the assembly the republicans have twenty-five, the democrats 22 and the socialist democrats three.

The fight in Trempealeau county between former Speaker Jeremiah Ekers, independent, and Albert Twomey, the regular republican candidate who was supported by Governor Davidson, while Senator La Follette supported Ekers, Twomey appears to have won out by a margin of 130 odd votes. As this was a fight between the Davidson and La Follette forces it was most eagerly watched and the result is a clear-cut victory for the Governor.

Milwaukee gave Taft a majority not as large as expected but failed to give Davidson the usual republican vote. This is said to be due to the attitude he took recently relative to prize fights and the bitter fight made against him by this element.

The Milwaukee county republican ticket was elected with the exception of the sheriff, Kleinsinger being defeated by Frank by 761 plurality. Taft carried Milwaukee by 2,569 plurality and Aylward, democrat, carried it by 177 plurality, showing the seat was made for the Governor for personal reasons as the rest of the state ticket had fair pluralities.

While there has been much talk during the last days of the campaign that Stephenson's reelection to the United States Senate was in doubt, the complexion of the next legislature, and the decisive victory at the primaries in September are believed to have placed this beyond a question of a doubt.

Chairman Edmund gives out a statement that there is now no question of Senator Stephenson's election and that the results of the election follow out his estimate made several days ago. While the total vote for Taft may be changed somewhat it is certain that he has carried the state by a good wide margin and that Davidson is also elected with a plurality of eighty thousand.

FIRE AT THE HOME OF FRANK SNYDER THIS AFTERNOON

Threatened to do Very Serious Damage—Shanty on N. Bluff Street Ablaze.

At about half past three o'clock this afternoon an alarm of fire was sent in at the East received indicating 95 for which there is no box. A run was made, however, up North Bluff street to the shanty belonging to Tim O'Rourke which was burning and this was quickly extinguished. It was later discovered an alarm rung in from the box at the corner of Madison avenue and Glen streets and came at the same time as the other and the two became confused in the machine. The second alarm was for the house of Frank Snyder on Fifth avenue, which was burning quite rapidly. The house is one mass of flame according to reports received by telephone. The roof and walls of the barn at the Snyder place are beginning to cave in and the house is still burning briskly although the department are getting it more under control. The fire started immediately after the departure of Timmers who were working on the back portion of the roof. It was not noticed until 4:15 p.m. Snyder's son, heard a crackling noise and an alarm was turned in. It gained headway very rapidly.

HEARD RETURNS AT THEIR CLUB ROOMS

Both Elks and Unique Club Held Smokers Last Evening That Were Well Attended.

At the club rooms of the Elks and of the Unique club, smokers were held last evening and election returns enjoyed. The Elks had a supper at 6:30 and later enjoyed buffet lunch while listening to the returns from the national and state elections. The affair was well patronized and the members enjoyed themselves until early this morning when the final results from Ohio were received.

At the Unique Club the members watched the returns as flashed onto the screen in front of the Gazette and later sat down to a buffet luncheon. Music and cards were enjoyed by the members and their guests.

At other places about the city returns were received and either posted or read to those who were eagerly waiting for definite word from the doubtful states. The largest crowd, however, were in front of the Gazette office.

The Wisconsin Telephone Company had all their day and night force at work and served them with a chicken soup supper about six and later with a luncheon at midnight.

STRUCK BY TRAIN; LEG WAS BROKEN

Thomas Corrigan Hit By Train No. 510 On Northwestern Road This Morning.

Thomas Corrigan, water boy for the truck surface gang working near the Rock River bridge of the Northwestern road, was struck, this morning, by the Northwestern train leaving here for Chicago at 9:10 and his left leg broken. He was placed on the train which backed up to the Five Points where Corrigan was transferred in an ambulance to the Mercy hospital.

Corrigan saw the train coming but failed to correctly gauge the speed at which it was approaching and was hit before he could get off from the track. Except for a few bruises and broken leg he was not hurt, which, considering the circumstances, was a remarkable escape.

Corrigan tells the story to his associates that he was at one time an artist and was making a good living with his profession but that prospect was too much for him and he gradually drifted into his present life.

An Italian, working with the truck gang of the Northwestern road, smashed a finger while at work this morning. Dr. Woods dressed the injured member.

Greek's Mistake.
A few days ago one of the Greeks, employed by the St. Paul road on the section, shot a crane while on a little hunting trip. Thinking it was a chicken and that he had captured a prize, he and his companions proceeded to cook and eat the bird. The result was a severe attack of indigestion. One of the men accordingly went to a local doctor and on being asked what had caused his illness replied "I ate a long chick, I guess da seek."

CHARMING DINNER GIVEN LAST NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Soverhill introduced Their Daughter, Miss Cora, into Society with a Large Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Soverhill last evening entertained seventy ladies and gentlemen at a 6:30 dinner at their residence, 1111 Washington street. The affair was Miss Cora Soverhill's debut into society and will be followed by a luncheon at one o'clock on Friday and again on Wednesday next. The house was most tastefully decorated with flags and the place-cards were daintily adorned with national emblems.

Miss Soverhill and her sister, Miss William, gave several musical selections during the evening and later bridge was enjoyed by those present. Mrs. William Jeffris was awarded the head prize for the ladies and Mrs. W. F. Palmer the consolation prize. Mr. W. F. Palmer carried off the honors for the gentlemen with Mr. Richard Barlow awarded the consolation honors. Rewards from the election were also received during the evening. Mrs. Soverhill having made special arrangements with the telephone company for this purpose.

Mrs. Charles Gage entertained at a basket supper last evening.

This afternoon Mrs. W. G. Wheeler and Miss Mabel Jackson gave the second of their afternoon card parties in honor of Miss Helen Nash, who leaves tomorrow for Chicago where she will make her home in the future. Mrs. Wheeler and Miss Jackson's first party was yesterday.

JAMES CALE NOW ON TRIAL FOR AN ALLEGED HOLD-UP

Jury Was Selected This Morning and Testimony Taken This Afternoon.

Green and Walker were discharged by the judge on examination and S. Spoon and C. B. Conrad summoned. Spoon was discharged and George Goldsmith summoned in his place.

Take Testimony.
The first witness for the prosecution was Chief of Police E. A. Nolan who identified Cale as the man who was sent up from Fond du Lac to Waukegan. Roy Cummings, who found Peschko lying on the sidewalk a few minutes after the alleged hold-up, then testified and told of finding Peschko and of seeing two men run around the corner of the Jaffa flats as he turned off from Milwaukee street on the night of October 10.

Albert Dorsey, who was recently sent up to Waukegan for this same hold-up and who was brought down from Waukegan last night by Mr. Benson, a clerk in the state prison, was next called by the prosecution. Dorsey told in detail his doings that night, where he met Cale, how Cale struck Peschko and went through his pockets and the later division of the spoils.

The examination of Dorsey lasted until late in the afternoon. At ten o'clock this morning the work of selecting a jury to try the case of James Cale accused of holding up and robbing Herman Peschko of $8 on the night of October 10, by the panel of jurors drawn on Monday and from which the objectionable names were stricken off by District Attorney W. L. Fisher and Charles Pierce, two were out of town and two were excused for having served within a year. The others were Charles Snyder, F. J. Schmidt, E. E. Green, Joseph Behlin, John Ketchap, J. Walker, Charles Eiler and Leslie Barber. A special venire was issued by Judge Elford for four more jurors and W. H. Taylor, Al. Smith, Henry Tall and A. L. Wilcox were secured by the sheriff. Attorney Pierce objected to the issuing of a special venire, but Judge Elford overruled this objection.

Attorney Pierce then made a motion to strike out certain parts of the complaint as surplusage and Judge Elford reserved his decision until the jury should be sworn.

The examination of the jury was then commenced and lasted until noon when the court adjourned.

We are directing our attention to those who are particular about eatables.

Particular not only as to careful selection of superior qualities in the individual article, but particular as to the manner in which such goods are handled, cared for, protected and delivered.

Particular about the variety from which they may choose. Particular as to the security they may feel in placing their order.

If your grocer has not unmistakably earned your patronage, we would be glad to have you try us.

Our first aim will be to learn your wishes. Each account has its individuality as much as a store.

We study each one with a view to serving them exactly as they would be served, and this method is responsible for our growing business.

May we have the opportunity?

HAD AN OPERATION ON HIS RIGHT EYE

J. A. Craig III At His Home As Result of Injury Yesterday Morning.

While inspecting some new fire protection apparatus at the Janesville Machine company yesterday Mr. J. A. Craig got a particle of rusty iron in his right eye. He did not pay much attention to it at the time but later it pained him so that a physician was called.

The eye had become very much inflamed and an operation was performed this morning to remove the particle of iron. Mr. Craig is suffering much pain and is confined to his home but no permanent injury is expected to result from the accident.

TAFT IS ELECTED PRESIDENT

Republican National Ticket Is Victorious, Receiving Big Majority in the Electoral College.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN IS BADLY BEATEN FOR THE THIRD TIME

New York, Indiana and Other Crucial States Roll Up Heavy Pluralities for Ohioan--Democratic Candidate Carries His Own State.

New York, Nov. 4.—General election returns from throughout the United States show the following results: William H. Taft of Ohio has been elected president, with 238 electoral votes secure and 13 doubtful.

Practically no change is indicated in the complexion of the national house of representatives.

The United States senate will retain its present Republican majority. Gov. Charles E. Hughes has been re-elected in New York state by about 75,000 plurality, and Gov. Charles S. Deneen was re-elected in Illinois.

Indiana went for Taft by from 15,000 to 18,000 plurality.

Irryan apparently carried Nebraska, Ohio returns were seriously delayed owing to the immense size of the ballot, but Taft carried the state by a majority ranging from 50,000 to 75,000.

Taft Carries New York City. Taft carried New York city by about 11,000 plurality, this being the first time the city has given its vote to a Republican presidential candidate since 1896, when Mr. McKinley had a small plurality.

Mr. Taft received a greater plurality in New York state than President Roosevelt did four years ago, the indications pointing to 302,000 for Mr. Taft as against 175,000 for Mr. Roosevelt.

Hughes, the Independence, party candidate for president, received about 23,000 votes in Greater New York.

The indications are Democratic governors have been elected in several of the middle western states that have given their presidential votes to Taft.

Mr. Taft exceeded Mr. Roosevelt's plurality in New Jersey and in Massachusetts as well as in New York.

Mr. Taft carried practically every so-called doubtful state except Nebraska, where the indications pointed to a Democratic victory. Mr. Bryan carried Nevada and Montana, in addition to the solid south, which includes Missouri.

Returns from Colorado and Maryland were too meager to form a definite conclusion as to their ultimate alignment.

Republican Pluralities Reduced. Some of the figures relating to the Republican slump in certain states regarded as certainly Republican, are little short of amazing. Pennsylvania's immense plurality of over 500,000 four years ago has been cut in two. Illinois, which gave Roosevelt 303,000 in 1904, has gone for Taft by about 170,000. The highest claim of the Republicans for Indiana is 15,000 as against a plurality of 93,000 for Roosevelt.

Iowa, which gave Mr. Roosevelt 158,000 plurality in 1904, has dropped down to about 40,000 for Taft. The return of Missouri to the Democracy on the presidential ticket wiped out a Republican plurality of 25,000 four years ago. Massachusetts, New York and New Jersey were striking exceptions to the generally reduced Republican pluralities.

There was a shrinkage in the Democratic vote in several of the southern states, notably in Virginia and North Carolina.

Chairman Hitchcock's Statement. At 10:30 o'clock Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock of the Republican national committee met the newspaper representatives in his rooms at national headquarters and made the following statement:

"The returns speak for themselves. There seem to be no longer any doubtful states. The electoral vote will show that my estimate was correct. It looks now, I think, as if I must have underestimated it. The returns have exceeded my expectations.

"The plurality in Indiana will be less than I expected. That in Illinois is far more than anticipated. And so it goes; where one state has not quite come up to the figures I had expected some other state has gone far beyond. The latest returns from encouragement in the faith he was making upstate over the Democratic vote of 1904, but as the figures continued to be received, he relied on Greater New York to offset the heavy Taft vote above the Harlem river. Even in that he was bitterly disappointed and he soon realized that the state was hopelessly gone and with it his prospects of being elected.

President Roosevelt Elated. Washington, Nov. 4.—President Roosevelt was greatly elated when he saw by the election bulletin which reached him at the White House that the man who will succeed him to the presidency is William Howard Taft, for whose election he had striven so hard, and that the Republican party had achieved a sweeping victory.

The president spent a short while in his office and then went back to the White House, only 100 feet away, to be with his guests, who included the cabinet members and assistant secretaries now in town, and their wives, and Gen. Bell and Gen. Edwards. Shortly before midnight he made public telegrams of congratulation which he had sent to President-elect Taft, Vice-President-elect Sherman, Gov. Charles E. Hughes of New York, Republican National Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock and Congressional Committee Chairman Henry C. Loudenslager.

QUEEN WILHELMINA STARTS BIBLE CLASSES IN PALACE.

The Hague.—Since her latest sorrow Queen Wilhelmina has started a bible class, comprising her entire household, particularly the lower class servants.

Punctually at 9 every morning they assemble in the library of the palace for a quarter of an hour's bible reading. The queen usually selects the chapter during her own morning devotion and does the reading in a clear, high pitched voice. She has made it a rule that every day everyone of the low servants must be free from duty between 9 and 10 in the morning, and she expects them to attend the reading faithfully.

The queen rises at 7 a. m. Sundays and week days, takes her morning bath and makes a hasty toilet. The bath and dressing never occupy more than 25 minutes. She then goes into her writing room, looks over her letters and takes up the chief newspapers of her own country and of the capitals of Europe, the main features of which have been previously marked by a secretary.

Wilhelmina does not believe in sleeping pills. She wants to have the whole newspaper so that she may read as much of every article as she pleases.

At 12:30 o'clock she takes breakfast with her husband and the chief members of her household. From 2 o'clock on she is at home for ministers of state, with whom she does not hesitate to engage in lively arguments if a proposal does not suit her. If she once makes up her mind against a measure of government she sticks to it also.

lately and nothing but a decision of the states general can move her. Dinner takes place at 7 o'clock sharp and is an elaborate affair, usually consisting of eight courses, like a true Hollander. "Our Wilhelmina" (Our Little Wilhelmina) goes to bed at 10:30 every night.

Silence Not Always a Virtue. There is a time when silence is an excellent quality and a noble virtue, and there is a time when it shows a lack of moral courage and great cowardice.—L. L. Lee.

Great Minds for Great Things. To accomplish great things, argues great things implies no common adult.—Hazlitt.

"No Funda!" Soon after the battle of Lepidus a well observed that Bonaparte must be in funds, for he had received a check on the bank of the Nile.

Luck. Some men are so lucky that if they happen to slip on a banana peel they fall into a fortune.

Taft to Go to White House; Who Will Go to Europe?

There Are Three More Days in Which to Campaign For Votes, Then Comes the Count. If You Do Not Wish to Be Counted Out By the Judges You Should Utilize Every Available Minute. It's Votes You Need to Win. There Is Only One Way to Get Them and That Is to Go After Them.

The Names of the Judges and the Closing Rules Will Be Published Friday.—No More Newspaper Ballots.—Yesterday's Voting Was Very Light.

Now that the question of who is to be the next president is settled let us turn our attention to deciding who is to tour Europe and who will wear the beautiful and costly diamonds and watches to be given the winners in the Gazette's great contest. The bonus vote offer of this week has been enthusiastically received and a wild scramble for votes is sure to be the result. A great deal can be accomplished in three days. The manager of this contest has often seen three days' work with a grand prize in these affairs. It's the finish that counts. Fight to the last ditch.

That's the spirit of a winner. Only three more days to go and no matter how much of a campaign you have made there is more to be gathered this week and they will beyond doubt have the most vital bearing on your final standing. Don't give up the ship until you are counted out by the judges next Saturday night. Never mind this talk about what the other fellow has in reserve. Believe that when you hear the judges call them off on the closing night.

In the meantime get all that you can. Then if you're beaten you can feel that you did not quit when you had a good chance to win. Imagine how you would feel to find that you are awarded a district prize when a few more subscriptions would have landed a trip abroad.

Survival of the Fittest.

Thus far in the race you have proven your mettle and shown that you are worthy to stand out among the few who have the personality and the grit to accomplish big things. You have shown that you are a success in life. Had you been a failure or only a person of mediocre ability you would never have survived the hard hustling of the past two weeks in this great "war of the worthy" and no matter whether you win or lose, your showing has been one to be proud of and one that your enemies as well as your friends will be forced to admire.

You can't all win. There are nine prizes and there will be nine winners, but every contestant in the race will be a winner in many ways. He will have won the respect and admiration of every citizen of this vicinity who has watched this trial of strength and who can not do other than admit that the men and women in this race who fought it out to the last ditch and never cried "enough" or never acknowledged that they could be defeated, are possessors of all the qualities which go to make the successful men and women of modern times.

Your connection with and showing in the heat of this friendly competitive struggle can but add to your prestige in your chosen community.

Now, keep your stride during the last three days of magnificent effort. Draw on every resource; muster every possible reserve; guard against every possible or probable surprise; don't overestimate your antagonist, and last but not least, most important of all—don't underestimate your adversary, no matter where he stands today. It does not all show in the columns of the paper and you can't believe half you hear but get every vote you can, anyhow. Make a finish such as your achievements of the past six weeks have led your friends to expect of you and you can't lose.

UNTIL MIDNIGHT

GAZETTE'S BULLETINS WERE

ROUNDLY CHEERED BY REC-ORD-BREAKING CROWD.

TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED WAIT

Great Landslide for Taft and the Republican Party Enjoyed by the

Watchers Who Showed Their

Approval in Various

Manners.

It was six minutes by six last night when the first report of the great republican landslide was thrown into the air from the front of the Gazette office and from that time until long after midnight an enthusiastic crowd observed each report as it was flashed onto the canvas showing that Taft was sweeping the country in one of the greatest of republican landslides.

Equipped with the best news service possible to obtain, the Gazette gave its patrons an opportunity of knowing before they retired the exact condition and vote in the different states as fast as they were received.

From the Postal Telegraph Co. the full report was secured, a special operator being stationed at a private wire running directly from the Chicago office of the company to the Gazette. Here the report was handled with expediency and but a few seconds elapsed before it was made known to the waiting public.

At the Postal Telegraph office the Associated Press report was received and rushed to the Gazette office to be handled in bulletin form on the big screen. Two messenger boys were necessary to attend to the messages and reports were received as fast as filed in the Chicago office of the Associated Press.

The Wisconsin Telephone Company

furnished a third general news service, taking it over their wires from the Milwaukee office and sending a typewritten sheet to the Gazette in rush order. Two expert stenographers handled the matter in the telephone office and there was no delay.

Important items being telephoned directly to the office by the toll operator to obviate any delay in transmission.

Non at every polling place in the city brought the results from the words as fast as the machine count was made public, the first ward being in the office eight minutes after the polls closed, and the last in less than fifteen minutes.

Throughout the county experienced men were watching the count and saw the results in by long distance phone. Extra instruments on separate wires being installed in the Gazette office for the work. In Beloit, 12 and Madison and Milwaukee the Gazette's special representatives were busy cleaning the news to forward at once to the office with rush orders accompanying their telephone calls for connection. It was known early in the evening that Davidson had carried the state by eighty thousand, while

Taft's plurality was estimated at a hundred thousand.

The first returns received from

New York state foretold the great landslide and the crowd went wild with enthusiasm. As majority after majority rolled up and it was certain long before eight that Taft had swept shown several times upon special request.

There was never a break in the returns from the moment the electronic machine was started until the last slide with "Good Night" appeared at one o'clock and many even then came up to the editorial rooms to see if some later results had not been secured and several bulletins were read to the interested ones.

At midnight the Unique Club members, who had enjoyed the returns from their club room windows, invited the workers in the Gazette office to a buffet luncheon, which they were serving in connection with a smoker which was in progress for club members.

Evansville and Edgerton were also much interested in the results and called up by telephone at eleven to get the final results in several states and learn that Taft had carried Rock county by over four thousand plurality.

REPUBLICANS TO RULE CONGRESS

MAJORITY IN NEXT HOUSE WILL BE OVER FIFTY.

JOE CANNON RE-ELECTED

Speaker Wins Out in Home District
After Hot Fight—Other Prominent Leaders Are Returned to Seats.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—The next national house of representatives will be Republican again, according to the most reliable returns received, the majority in the house ranging between 55 and 65. Returns from the southern states show that the Democrats returned their usual Democratic representatives, while the northern and New England states are strongly Republican. The membership of the house is 391, and the majority necessary for control is 196.

Gains were made by the Republicans in North Carolina, Iowa and New York. The Democrats gained one district in Illinois, the Eighth, where Thomas Gallagher was elected to succeed Congressman McGavin. Republicans gain a district in Pennsylvania heretofore held by Democrats.

Speaker Cannon was re-elected by a majority of from 6,000 to 10,000. Congressmen McPherson, Hull, Dabzell, Payne and other leaders of national importance who had hard fights were all successful.

The districts on which the Democrats relied to increase their present strength have, in most instances, returned Republicans.

In Chicago all the present congression were re-elected except in the case of Gallagher, who defeated Kysicki (Rep.).

State Legislature Republican.

The next Illinois state legislature will be Republican again. The greatest surprise in the state fight came in the defeat of State Senator Orville P.
Horry for re-election in the Thirty-second district. He was defeated by James F. Gilman (Dem.).

Horry was head of the "senate committee" and was recognized as the successor of Daniel Campbell, as the leader after Campbell's retirement to accept the postmastership of Chicago.

Cannon Re-Elected.

Danville, Ill., Nov. 4.—Joseph G.
Cannon has been re-elected to congress by a plurality considerably above the normal. Returns are still incomplete, but enough figures have been obtained to show that he will probably have a plurality of at least 10,000.
This is estimated to be in the different counties in his district as follows: Vermilion, 6,000; Tazewell, 1,500; Kankakee, 2,000; Edgar, 700; Clark, 200; and Cumberland, 100. The result has been something of a surprise even to the friends of Mr. Cannon. The fight made against him by various church organizations, the Anti-Saloon League and organized labor, coupled with the fact that the Democrats had for the first time since 1863 a complete organization in this district, led the Republicans to believe that Mr. Cannon's plurality would not be over 3,000. In the heated union labor sections, however, Cannon received as large a vote as he ever received before, and in some of them he made decided gains.
The speaker expressed himself as extremely gratified over the vote of confidence given him by his constituents.

Payne to Introduce New Tariff Bill.

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The election of Seneca R. Payne, chairman of the ways and means committee in the house of representatives means that Mr. Payne will organize the tariff work of the next congress and will introduce the new tariff bill. Throughout the congressional recess he has been gathering information to lay before the ways and means committee when congress reconvenes. A large force of clerks and tariff experts have been employed and the work has been done with exceptional thoroughness.
Mr. Payne has been in congress almost continuously for the last 21 years. He succeeded to the important chairmanship of the ways and means committee on the death of Mr. Dingley of Maine, author of the present Dingley tariff law.

Race Track Entry Re-Elected.

New York, Nov. 4.—Otto G. Poster, the state senator who arose from a sick bed to go to Albany last spring and cast the deciding ballot which made possible the passage of Gov.
Hughes' anti-race track betting law, was elected to congress Tuesday from the Third district (Brooklyn) as a Republican.

Danzell Wins Out.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 4.—The re-election of Congressman John Danzell in the Thirtieth district by a greatly reduced plurality is conceded. Edward F. Duffy (Dem.) made a hard fight against him, cutting into his usual vote in industrial precincts.
Senator Clay's Re-Election Assured.
Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—Democratic candidates for congress are elected in all of the Georgia districts, numbering 11. The re-election of United States Senator Clay (Dem.) is assured.

HUGHES WINS IN NEW YORK

Gov. Donoen Is Re-Elected in Illinois by Plurality of About 50,000.

Adlai E. Stevenson Defeated in the Sucker State Though He Carried Chicago—Democrats Claim Election of State Ticket in Indiana and Ohio
—Minnesota Chooses Johnson Again.

New York, Nov. 4.—Gov. Hughes won by over 75,000 plurality the biennial battle of Ulster Bridge which was waged again Tuesday as the results of ballots were marshaled.

Hughes came down to the city from upstate with an indicated plurality of about 121,000. Chamber's plurality south of High Bridge was approximately 68,000. The vote of two years ago was increased by about 150,000; Chamber surprised the Democratic leaders by an unexpectedly large vote in the rural districts, but lost tremendously in the city of Greater New York, where his followers had expected at least 100,000 plurality.

Gov. Hughes was renominated Tuesday night by members of the Taft-Hughes league of Albany, who marched to the executive mansion with a band and a large crowd of people. The governor and Mrs.
Hughes greeted them from the porch of the mansion. The crowd gave three cheers for Mrs. Hughes and the governor then stepped forward and in a short address said:

"Fellow Citizens: I thank you very heartily for coming to give me this greeting. The indications from the returns so far as they have been received are most gratifying. I am deeply rejoiced for the splendid victory for the national ticket. It is most inspiring, and I want to thank you all for the earnest work that you have done that has made possible our victory in this state. It has been a great pleasure to go from one end of the state to the other and meet directly so many of my fellow citizens and talk over with them the great questions in which we are interested, and I want to thank you all for the loyal support that you have given to the ticket. I thank you most heartily. This is a time when emotion gets the better of words and I would not trust myself to speak fully all that my heart would prompt me to say. Once more from the bottom of my heart—I thank you."

Gov. Hughes early congratulated Judge Taft on his election.
He also sent the following message of congratulation to James S. Sherman, the vice-presidential nominee:
"I most heartily congratulate you upon your victory."

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 4.—Gov.
Donoen has been re-elected in Illinois by a plurality of from 40,000 to 50,000, while Judge Taft has carried the state by more than 200,000.

Gov. Donoen ran about 150,000 behind the national ticket, and nearly that number behind the rest of the state ticket.
Adlai E. Stevenson carried Chicago, on the face of incomplete returns, by about 12,000, but Gov. Donoen's lead in the country towns of Cook county cut that down considerably.

Some surprises were furnished in the downstate counties. Livingston county, for instance, gave John G.
Oglethorpe, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, a plurality of 1,400 and then turned around and gave Stevenson a plurality of 300 over Donoen, a difference of 1,700 votes.

Donoen carried McLean county, Stevenson's home county, by about 500, and also carried Stevenson's home precinct. Taft carried the county by more than 3,000.

Everything Rises to Its Level.

come out.—German Proverb.

The Younger Set

By ROBERT W. CHAMBERS,
Author of "The Fighting Chance," Etc.

Copyright, 1907, by Robert W. Chambers

"No," he said, "I don't want to be buried out there. Why can't you let my friends alone? I liked you before you began this sort of thing."

"I will let them alone if you will,"
said Selwyn, smiling. "I can't stand by and see you exploited and used and perverted. Will you give me one chance to talk it over, Gerald?"

"No," he said, "I won't return Gerald's offer. I'll stand for my friends every time!
There's no treachery in me!"

"You are not standing by me very fast," said the older man gently.

"I said I was standing by my friends!" repeated the boy.

"Very well, Gerald, but it's at the expense of your own people, I'm afraid."

"That's my business, and you're not one of 'em," retorted the boy, infuriated. "And you won't be, either, if I can prevent it, no matter whether people say that you're engaged to her!"

"What?" whispered Selwyn, wheeling like a flash. The last vestige of color had fled from his face, and Gerald caught his breath, almost blinded by the blaze of fury in the older man's eyes.

Neither spoke again, and after a moment Selwyn's eyes fell, and he turned heavily on his heel and walked away, head bent, gray eyes narrowing to slits.

Yet through the brain's chaos and the heart's loud tumult and the clamor of pulses run wild at the insult flung into his very face the grim instinct to go on persisted, and he went on and on for her sake—on, he knew not how, until he came to Neergard's apartment in one of the vast west side constructions bearing the name of a sovereign state, and here after an interval he followed his card to Neergard's splendid suite, where a manservant received him and left him seated by a sunny window overlooking the blossoming foliage of the park.

When Neergard came in and stood on the farther side of a big oak table Selwyn rose, returning the cool, curt nod.

"Mr. Neergard," he said, "it is not easy for me to come here after what I said to you when I severed my connection with your firm. You have every reason to be unfriendly toward me, but I came on the chance that whatever resentment you may feel will not prevent you from hearing me out."

"Personal resentment," said Neergard slowly, "never interferes with my business. I take it, of course, that you have called upon a business matter.
Will you sit down?"

"Thank you, I have only a moment, and what I am here for is to ask you as Mr. Erroll's friend to use your influence on Mr. Erroll—very soon of your influence—to prevent him from ruining himself financially through his excesses. I ask you for his family's sake to discontinue any more gambling, to hold him strictly to his duties in your office, to overlook no more shortcomings of his, but to demand from him what any trained business man demands of his associates as well as of his employees. I ask this for the boy's sake."

"I am not aware that Gerald requires any interference from me or from you either," said Neergard coolly.
"And, as far as that goes, I and my business require no interference either.
And I believe that settles it."

He touched a button. The man-servant appeared to usher Selwyn out, and the latter set his teeth in his under lip and looked straight and hard at Neergard, but Neergard thrust both hands in his pockets, turned squarely on his heel and sauntered out of the room, yawning as he went.

It did fair to become a hard day for Selwyn. He foresaw it, for there was more for him to do, and the day was far from ended, and his self restraint was nearly exhausted.

An hour later he sent his card in to Rosalind Fane, and Rosalind came down presently, unattired, flattered, yet showing alert and prepared for anything since the miracle of his coming, justified such preparation.

"Why in the world," she said, with a flushed, gayety perfectly genuine,
"did you ever come to see me?"

"It's only this," he said—"I am wondering whether you would do anything for me."

"Anything! Merely! Isn't that extremely general, Captain Selwyn? But you never can tell. Ask me."

So he bent forward, his clasped hands between his knees, and told her very earnestly of his fears about Gerald, asking her to use her undoubted influence with the boy to shame him into his present course was.

"Could you help us?" he asked.

"Help us, Captain Selwyn? Who is the 'us,' please?"

"Why, Gerald and me—and his family," he added, meeting her eyes. "The eyes began to dance with merriment."

"His family," repeated Rosalind—
"that is to say, his sister, Miss Er-roll. His family, I believe, ends there, does it not?"

"Yes, Mrs. Fane."

"I see, Miss Erroll is naturally worried over him. But I wonder why she did not come to me herself instead of sending you as her errand ambassador?"

"Miss Erroll did not send me," he said, flushing up. And, looking steady-ly into the smiling girl's face confronting him, he knew again that he had failed.

She smiled. "Come to me on your own errand, for Gerald's sake, for anybody's sake, for your own preferably."

and I'll listen, but don't come to me on another woman's errands, for I won't listen even to you."

"I have come on my own errand," he repeated coldly. "Miss Erroll knows nothing about it and shall not hear of it from me. Can you not help me, Mrs.
Fane?"

But Rosalind's rose china features had hardened into a polished smile, and Selwyn stood up wearily, to make his adieu.

But as he entered his house on before the door he knew the end was not yet, and once more he set his face toward the impossible, and once more the hansom rolled away over the asphalt, and once more it stopped, this time before the house of Ruthven.

Ruthven's greeting was a pallid stare, but as Selwyn made no motion to rise he lounged over to a couch and, half reclining among the cushions, shot an insolent glance at Selwyn, then yawned and examined the bangs on his wrist.

After a moment Selwyn said, "Mr.
Ruthven, you are no doubt surprised that I am here."

"I'm not surprised if it's my wife you've come to see," drawled Ruthven.
"If I'm the object of your visit, I confess to some surprise—as much as the visit is worth and no more."

The vulgarity of the insult under the man's own roof scarcely moved Selwyn to any deeper contempt and certainly not to anger.

"I did not come here to ask a favor of you," he said coolly, "for that is out of the question, Mr. Ruthven. But I came to tell you that Mr. Erroll's family has forbidden him to continue his gambling in this house and in your company anywhere or at any time."

"Most extraordinary," murmured Ruthven, passing his ringed fingers over his minutely shaven face—that strange face of a boy hardened by the depravity of ages.

"So I must request you," continued Selwyn, "to refuse him the opportunity of gambling here. Will you do it—voluntarily?"

"No."

"Then I shall use my judgment in the matter."

"And what may your judgment in the matter be?"

"I have not yet decided. For one thing I might enter a complaint with the police that a boy is being morally and materially ruined in your private gambling establishment."

"Is that a threat?"

"No, I will not, not threaten."

"Ah," drawled Ruthven, "I may do the same the next time my wife spends the evening in your apartment."

"You lie!" said Selwyn in a voice made low by surprise.

"Oh, no, I don't. Very chivalrous of you—quite proper for you to deny it."

"37-murder!" stammered Mr. Ruthven.
Like a gentleman—but useless, quite useless. So the less said about involving the law the better for some people. You'll agree with me, I dare say.
And now, concerning your friend Gerald Erroll—I have not the slightest desire to see him play cards. Whether or not he plays is a matter perfectly indifferent to me, and you had better understand it. But if you come here demanding that I arrange my guest list to suit you you are losing time."

Selwyn, almost stunned at Ruthven's knowledge of the episode in his rooms, had risen as he gave the man the lie direct.

For an instant, now, as he stared at him, there was murder in his eye.
Then, the utter hopeless helplessness of his position overwhelmed him as Ruthven, with danger written all over him, stood up, his soft, smooth thumbs hooked in the glittering ash of his cigarette.

"Scow! if you like," he said, backing away instinctively, but still nervously impertinent, "and keep your distance!
If you've anything further to say to me, write it." Then, growing bolder as Selwyn made no offensive move:
"Write to me," he repeated, with a venomous smile. "It's safer for you to figure as my correspondent than as my wife's correspondent. Let go of me! What the devil are you d-d-ding?"

For Selwyn had him fast, one slender hand twisted in his silk collar, holding him squelching at arm's length.

"M-murder!" stammered Mr. Ruthven.

"No," said Selwyn, "not this time.
But be very, very careful after this."

And he let him go with an involuntary shudder and wiped his hands on his handkerchief.

Ruthven stood quite still, and after a moment the vivid terror died out in his face and a rushing flush spread over it—a strange, dreadful shade curiously opaque—and he half turned, dizzily, hands outstretched for self support.

Selwyn coolly watched him as he sank on to the couch and sat huddled together and leaning forward, his soft, ringed fingers covering his emurpled face.

Then Selwyn went away with a shrug of utter loathing, but after he had gone and Ruthven's servants had discovered him and summoned a physician their master lay heavily and his painted draperies and cushions, his concealed features set, his eyes partly open and, possessing sight, but the whites of them had disappeared, and the eyes themselves, save for the pupils, were like two dark silts filled with blood.

There was no doubt about it. The doctors, one and all, knew their business when they had so often cautioned Mr. Ruthven to avoid sudden and excessive emotions.

That night Selwyn wrote briefly to Mrs. Ruthven:

"I saw your husband this afternoon. He is at liberty to inform you of what passed. But in case he does not there is one detail which you ought to know—your husband believes that you once paid a visit to my apartments. It is unlikely that he will repeat the accusation, and I think there is no occasion for you to worry. However, it is only proper that you should know this, which is my only excuse for writing you a letter that requires no acknowledgment. Very truly yours,
PHILIP SELWYN."

To this letter she wrote an excited and, somewhat incoherent reply, and, re-reading it in troubled surprise, she began to recognize in it something of the strange, logical, impulsive attitude which had confronted him in the first weeks of his wedded life.

Here was the same minor undertone of unrest sounding ominously through every line; the same logical, unhappy attitude which implied so much and said so little, leaving him uneasy and disconcerted, conscious of the vague recklessness and yelled reproach, dragging him back from the present through the dead years to confront once more the old pain, the old bewilderment at the hopeless misundersstanding between them.

To be continued.
Short-Sighted Man.

We are all short-sighted, and very often see but one side of a matter; our views are not extended to all that has a connection with it. From this defect I think no man is free. We see but in part, and we know but in part, and therefore it is no wonder we conclude not right from our partial views.
—John Locke.

The Need of the World.

The world must return some day to the word duty, and be done with the word reward. There are no rewards and plenty of duties. And the sooner a man sees that and acts upon it like a gentleman or a fine old barbarian, the better for himself.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

"TAFT, TAFT, BIG BILL TAFT."

Thousands Throng Gotham Streets
Chanting This Refrain.

New York, Nov. 4.—The closing of the polls Tuesday evening was the sign for a rush to Park Row, where the newspapers had strung up large white canvases on which were thrown election results. By eight o'clock scores of thousands had congregated in City Hall park and nearby streets. There were other crowds in front of the bulletin boards on Broadway, in Harlem and in Brooklyn.

Two hours after the polls had closed several newspapers issued extras announcing the election of Taft, and throughout the thousands arose a new familiar refrain, "Taft, Taft, Big Bill Taft."

Broadway was the scene of much revelry, a continuous parade of merrymakers moving up one side of the "Great White Way" and down the other.

Although the climax of the saturanalia was not reached until theaters let out their crowds, the celebration began long before the closing of the polls. The whirr, whiz, jangle and bang; the rush and turmoil; the clatter and rattle; the shouting, cat-calling and whistling were more demonstrations of the enthusiasm of the spectators, which did not, until some time later, when the results began to be definitely known, change to the demonstrations of enthusiasm with political significance attached to it.

LANDSLIDE FOR TAFT—HOWELL.

Georgia Democratic Leader Comments on the Result.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—At 10:20 Tuesday night, Clark Howell, national

Mr. Howell gave the Associated Press the following statement:
"It is a landslide for Taft. Mr.
Bryan has made a wonderful campaign, but he could not overcome the prevailing idea that business conditions would be adversely affected by Republican defeat. It is now up to the Republicans to make good their pledge to restore prosperity, for to that pledge they must attribute their success more than anything else. Mr.
Taft is a big, broad, patriotic American, and he will be fair and just to the south."

Missouri Senatorial Fight.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 4.—Scenarring returns from throughout Missouri and returns from half of Kansas City indicate that Senator William J.
Stone is receiving a larger vote than Joseph W. Folk, the present governor of Missouri, for United States senator.
The next legislature will be Democratic. Only Democratic ballots count in the contest between Stone and Folk.
